> Aboard the ship Arbella bound for Massachusetts Bay, the Puritan leader urged the colonists to build a godly community bound by love — famously calling it "a city upon a hill" on which the eyes of all the world would be fixed.

For wee must Consider that wee shall be as a Citty upon a hill. The eies of all people are uppon Us, soe that if wee shall deale falsely with our god in this worke wee have undertaken, and soe cause him to withdrawe his present help from us, wee shall be made a story and a by-word through the world.
