'THE ONLY THING WE HAVE TO FEAR…'

A New Deal for America

FDR & the Hundred Days

- Franklin Roosevelt swept the 1932 election, promising a 'New Deal.'
- In his first Hundred Days, he pushed 15 major laws through Congress.
- His 'brain trust' of experts reimagined the federal government's role.

Restoring Confidence

- FDR declared a bank holiday and passed the Emergency Banking Act.
- In warm radio 'fireside chats,' he reassured a frightened nation.
- The new FDIC insured deposits—and Americans trusted banks again.

The Three R's

I

Relief

Immediate help for the suffering—jobs, food, and direct aid.

II

Recovery

Restart the economy and put people back to work.

III

Reform

Fix the flaws that caused the crash so it can't happen again.

SECTION

Relief & Recovery

Putting America to Work

- The Civilian Conservation Corps employed young men on conservation projects.
- The WPA and PWA built roads, schools, bridges, and parks.
- Millions found work—and dignity—through federal jobs programs.

Reviving Industry & Agriculture

- The NRA set industry codes for wages, prices, and hours—its 'Blue Eagle' everywhere.
- The AAA paid farmers to cut production and raise prices.
- The TVA brought electricity and jobs to the rural South.
