Era 10: Civil War

1861–1865 · APUSH Period 5 · Lessons 23–24

Name _____ Due _____

This is your study guide for the whole era. Complete each lesson section as you study it, using your class notes and textbook: read the AP topic(s) listed for the lesson in your textbook, define every term, person and event in your own words, then answer the Key Question in 3–5 sentences with specific evidence. Each lesson is checked and stamped in class; the whole guide is collected and graded at the end of the era. Before the end-of-era test: finish the Era Wrap-Up, then reread the whole guide. Fix or add anything in a different color.

AP Short-Answer Practice

Answer a, b and c. Each part is scored on its own, so answer each one directly in 1–3 sentences with specific historical evidence.

U.S. Census Office, Population of the United States in 1860 (Eighth Census), state population figures

Sums of 1860 census state figures. Union = 19 free states (including Kansas, admitted January 1861) and 4 border slave states (Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri); D.C. and territories not included. Total population: Union 22,044,714; Confederacy 9,103,332. Virginia includes the counties that became West Virginia in 1863.

Data: U.S. Census Office, Eighth Census (1860), state totals; summed for this guide.

a. Briefly describe ONE difference between the Union and the Confederacy shown in the chart.

b. Briefly explain ONE way the difference you described affected the outcome of the Civil War.

c. Briefly explain ONE other factor between 1861 and 1865 that contributed to the Union victory.

DBQ Practice · Sourcing: Purpose

PROMPT

Evaluate the extent to which the goals of the Union changed during the Civil War from 1861 to 1865.

Your task: Write 2–3 sentences explaining how Lincoln's purpose in issuing the proclamation is relevant to an argument that answers the prompt, using the document on this page.

What earns the point: To earn credit, explain why the author produced the document, not just what it says, and how that purpose matters for your argument (for example, why Lincoln presented emancipation as a war measure under his power as commander in chief). On the real DBQ you would do this for at least two documents.

Abraham Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, January 1, 1863

Now, therefore I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as Commander-in-Chief, of the Army and Navy of the United States in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion,

And by virtue of the power, and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated States, and parts of States, are, and henceforward shall be free; and that the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution, upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind, and the gracious favor of Almighty God.
