DBQ Practice · Complexity

PROMPT

Evaluate the extent to which Reconstruction changed the lives of African Americans from 1865 to 1877.

Your task: Write 3–4 sentences that show complexity: use the document on this page to explain how the 14th Amendment marked a change AND how its promise was limited by 1877.

What earns the point: To earn the point, show a complex understanding throughout your argument, for example by explaining both change and continuity, multiple causes or effects, or how evidence corroborates, qualifies, or modifies an argument. A single sentence or passing phrase is not enough; it must be developed with evidence.

Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, Section 1, passed by Congress June 13, 1866; ratified July 1868

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.
