Lesson 21 Reading Homework

Era 9: Sectionalism & Antebellum Crisis · Focus: Sectional crisis · Compromise of 1850 · Kansas-Nebraska · Bleeding Kansas

Reading due today: AMSCO 5.4, 5.5

> Connect: Every compromise buys time but raises the stakes. Trace how the Compromise of 1850 and the Kansas-Nebraska Act (1854) push the nation from argument toward bloodshed.

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 5.4 (LO D): Explain similarities and differences in how regional attitudes affected federal policy after the Mexican– American War.

– 5.5 (LO E): Explain the effects of immigration on American culture from 1844 to 1877.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] Fugitive Slave Act
[ ] Uncle Tom's Cabin (1852)
[ ] Kansas-Nebraska Act (1854)
[ ] popular sovereignty
[ ] Free-Soil movement
[ ] Republican Party

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] H. Clay
[ ] D. Webster
[ ] J.C. Calhoun
[ ] S. Douglas
[ ] H.B. Stowe
[ ] C. Sumner

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Compromise of 1850
[ ] Kansas- Nebraska Act (1854)
[ ] Bleeding Kansas (1854–59)
[ ] Ostend Manifesto (1854)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. Why did the Compromise of 1850 satisfy neither side, and what made the Fugitive Slave Act so explosive in the North?

2. How did the Kansas-Nebraska Act (1854) undo the Missouri Compromise, and why did popular sovereignty make the sectional crisis worse?

3. Using Uncle Tom's Cabin (1852), explain how culture shaped Northern attitudes toward slavery.