Lesson 17 Reading Homework

Era 7: Market Revolution & Reform · Focus: Antebellum reform · 2nd Great Awakening · abolition · women's rights

Reading due today: AMSCO 4.9, 4.10, 4.11

> Connect: The same era that built factories also launched a wave of reform. Notice how the Second Great Awakening's message of individual salvation feeds abolition, temperance, and women's rights.

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 4.9 (LO I): Explain how and why a new national culture developed from 1800 to 1848.
– 4.10 (LO J): Explain the causes of the Second Great Awakening.
– 4.11 (LO K): Explain how and why various reform movements developed and expanded from 1800 to 1848.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] Second Great Awakening
[ ] Transcendentalism
[ ] Cult of Domesticity
[ ] abolitionism
[ ] temperance
[ ] common schools
[ ] asylum/prison reform
[ ] utopian communities
[ ] American Anti-Slavery Society
[ ] Declaration of Sentiments
[ ] Romanticism & the Hudson River School
[ ] Shakers
[ ] Brook Farm
[ ] Oneida Community

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] C. Finney
[ ] R.W. Emerson
[ ] H.D. Thoreau
[ ] W.L. Garrison
[ ] F. Douglass
[ ] E. Stanton
[ ] L. Mott
[ ] H. Mann
[ ] D. Dix
[ ] Harriet Tubman
[ ] Alexis de Tocqueville
[ ] Joseph Smith (Mormons)
[ ] Sojourner Truth
[ ] Sarah & Angelina Grimké

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] The Liberator (1831)
[ ] Seneca Falls Convention (1848)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. How did the Second Great Awakening's emphasis on individual salvation feed into reform movements (abolition, temperance, women's rights)?

2. Why was the Seneca Falls Convention (1848) a turning point, and what was its most controversial resolution?

3. Compare the goals of the abolitionist and women's rights movements. What did they share, and where did they differ?