Lesson 26 Reading Homework

Era 11: Reconstruction · Focus: Radical Reconstruction · 14th & 15th Amendments · impeachment

Reading due today: AMSCO 5.10 (cont.)

> Connect: The 14th Amendment's 'equal protection' language becomes the constitutional basis for Brown v. Board (1954). Trace one line from 1868 to your parents' generation.

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 5.10 (LO K): Explain the effects of government policy during Reconstruction on society from 1865 to 1877.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] Radical Republicans
[ ] military districts
[ ] 14th & 15th Amendments
[ ] impeachment

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] T. Stevens
[ ] C. Sumner
[ ] A. Johnson
[ ] U.S. Grant
[ ] Hiram Revels

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Reconstruction Acts (1867)
[ ] 14th Amendment (1868)
[ ] Johnson impeached (1868)
[ ] 15th Amendment (1870)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. What does the 14th Amendment's Section 1 guarantee, and how does it overturn Dred Scott (Class 26)?

2. Explain the difference between the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments — what did each specifically do?

3. How did the 14th Amendment try to limit the political power of former Confederate leaders, and how effective was it?