Lesson 56 Reading Homework

Era 24: War on Terror (2001–2008) · Focus: 9/11 · Afghanistan · Iraq · Katrina

Reading due today: AMSCO 9.5*, 9.6*

Connect: The PATRIOT Act (2001) expanded surveillance and detention powers. Compare with EO 9066 in WWII (Lesson 44). Are these justified emergency measures or repeated overreach?

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 9.5 (LO E): Explain the causes and effects of domestic and international migration over time.

– 9.6 (LO F): Explain the causes and effects of the domestic and international challenges the United States has faced in the 21st century.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] PATRIOT Act
[ ] Afghanistan & Iraq Wars
[ ] Guantanamo
[ ] Dept. of Homeland Security
[ ] NCLB
[ ] War on Terror
[ ] "Axis of Evil"
[ ] weapons of mass destruction (WMDs)
[ ] al-Qaeda
[ ] Taliban
[ ] Bush Doctrine (preemptive war)

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] G.W. Bush
[ ] D. Cheney
[ ] O. bin Laden
[ ] Colin Powell

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Bush v. Gore (2000)
[ ] 9/11 (2001)
[ ] Afghanistan (2001)
[ ] Iraq (2003)
[ ] Katrina (2005)
[ ] troop surge in Iraq (2007)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. What was the immediate U.S. response to 9/11? Cover: Bush's speech, Afghanistan, PATRIOT Act, Department of Homeland Security.

2. How did the Iraq War (2003) differ from the invasion of Afghanistan (2001)? What was the justification for each?

3. How did Hurricane Katrina (2005) expose failures of federal, state, and local government? What does it reveal about race and poverty in America?