Lesson 14 Reading Homework

Era 6: Jacksonian Era · Focus: Jacksonian democracy · Bank War · Indian Removal

Reading due today: AMSCO 4.8

> Connect: Jackson's fight with the Bank echoes Jefferson's opposition to Hamilton's Bank from Lesson 9. What's the same? What's different?

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 4.8 (LO H): Explain the causes and effects of continuing policy debates about the role of the federal government from 1800 to 1848.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] Bank War
[ ] Worcester v. GA

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] A. Jackson
[ ] J.C. Calhoun
[ ] H. Clay
[ ] M. Van Buren

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Indian Removal Act (1830)
[ ] Nullification Crisis (1832)
[ ] Bank veto (1832)
[ ] Trail of Tears (1838)

Organizer: For each Jackson action, note ONE cause and ONE effect:

Action	Cause	Effect
Bank Veto (1832)
Indian Removal Act (1830)
Force Bill (1833)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. Explain Jackson's reasoning in the Bank Veto Message — why did he see the Bank as unconstitutional AND anti-democratic?

2. How did the Indian Removal Act and the Trail of Tears reveal Jackson's use of executive power?

3. What was the Nullification Crisis, and how did Jackson respond to South Carolina?