Lesson 25 Reading Homework

Era 11: Reconstruction (1865–1877) · Focus: Lincoln's plan · Johnson's Reconstruction · Black Codes

Reading due today: AMSCO 5.10

Connect: The debate between Lincoln and Congress over Reconstruction is really a debate about who won the war — the executive or the legislature. Which branch had more power during the actual war?

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 5.10 (LO K): Explain the effects of government policy during Reconstruction on society from 1865 to 1877.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] 10% Plan
[ ] Wade-Davis Bill

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] A. Lincoln
[ ] A. Johnson
[ ] T. Stevens

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Freedmen's Bureau (1865)
[ ] Black Codes (1865–66)
[ ] Civil Rights Act of 1866

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. Compare Lincoln's Ten Percent Plan (1863) with the Wade-Davis Bill (1864): what did each require of former Confederate states?

2. How did Andrew Johnson's Reconstruction differ from what Radical Republicans in Congress wanted?

3. Why is the impeachment of Andrew Johnson a turning point — even though the Senate acquitted him?