Lesson 27 Reading Homework

Era 11: Reconstruction · Focus: Sharecropping · KKK · Compromise of 1877

Reading due today: AMSCO 5.11

Connect: Mississippi's 1865 Black Codes are the reason the 14th Amendment (Lesson 26) needed to be written. Point to ONE specific Black Code provision that the 14th Amendment invalidated.

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 5.11 (LO L): Explain how and why Reconstruction resulted in continuity and change in regional and national understandings of what it meant to be American.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] sharecropping
[ ] tenant farming
[ ] carpetbaggers
[ ] scalawags
[ ] Redemption

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] R.B. Hayes
[ ] S. Tilden

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] KKK violence
[ ] disputed Election of 1876
[ ] Compromise of 1877 ends Reconstruction

Organizer: For each Reconstruction development, note the Southern white response:

Federal Action	White Southern Response
Freedmen's Bureau
Reconstruction Acts (1867)
15th Amendment (1870)
End of Reconstruction (1877)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. What were the Black Codes, and how did they attempt to re-create features of slavery after emancipation?

2. Identify THREE Reconstruction-era gains for African Americans (constitutional, political, or economic) that were later undone.

3. What ended Reconstruction in 1877, and what compromise made it happen?