Lesson 48 Reading Homework

Era 20: Civil Rights Movement (1954–1968) · Focus: Brown to Birmingham · nonviolence

Reading due today: AMSCO 8.6, 8.10

Connect: King's argument for direct action came under fire from 'moderate' clergy. Compare his response to the pressure Frederick Douglass faced (Class 20) from white abolitionists who wanted him to speak more 'politely.'

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 8.6 (LO G): Explain how and why the civil rights movements developed and expanded from 1945 to 1960.

– 8.10 (LO L): Explain how and why various groups responded to calls for the expansion of civil rights from 1960 to 1980.

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. How did Brown v. Board (1954) overturn Plessy v. Ferguson (1896), and what did 'separate but equal' mean before Brown?

2. Compare the tactics of the Montgomery Bus Boycott (1955), sit-ins (1960), and Freedom Rides (1961): what did each accomplish?

3. According to the reading, why did Dr. King criticize the 'white moderate,' and how did that view shape his nonviolent strategy?
