Lesson 22 Reading Homework

Era 9: Sectionalism & Antebellum Crisis · Focus: Dred Scott · John Brown · Election of 1860

Reading due today: AMSCO 5.6, 5.7

Connect: Dred Scott overturned the Missouri Compromise (Class 13). How does the Supreme Court's role here connect back to Marbury (Lesson 11) — is Taney using the same tool for opposite ends?

Learning Objective(s) for today

– 5.6 (LO G): Explain the political causes of the Civil War.
– 5.7 (LO H): Describe the effects of Lincoln's election.

As you read, identify each of the following:

Terms (define in 1–2 sentences)

[ ] John Brown's Raid
[ ] secession

People (name + role/significance in 1 sentence)

[ ] R. Taney
[ ] A. Lincoln
[ ] S. Douglas
[ ] J. Brown
[ ] J. Davis

Events (year + one-sentence significance)

[ ] Lincoln-Douglas Debates (1858)
[ ] Harper's Ferry (1859)
[ ] Election of 1860
[ ] SC secedes (Dec 1860)

Reading Focus Questions

Answer in 2–4 complete sentences each. Use specific evidence from the reading.

1. Summarize Taney's TWO main rulings in Dred Scott (1857) — on Black citizenship AND on Congress's power over slavery in the territories.

2. How did John Brown's raid on Harper's Ferry (1859) affect Northern and Southern politics differently?

3. Why did the election of 1860 lead directly to secession? What did Lincoln's victory mean to Southern states?
