ERA 7

An Age of Reform

1800 – 1848

The Second Great Awakening · abolition · women's rights · American culture

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How did religious revival and reform movements seek to perfect American society?

KEY TERMS

Second Great Awakening · temperance · abolitionism · Seneca Falls · Transcendentalism

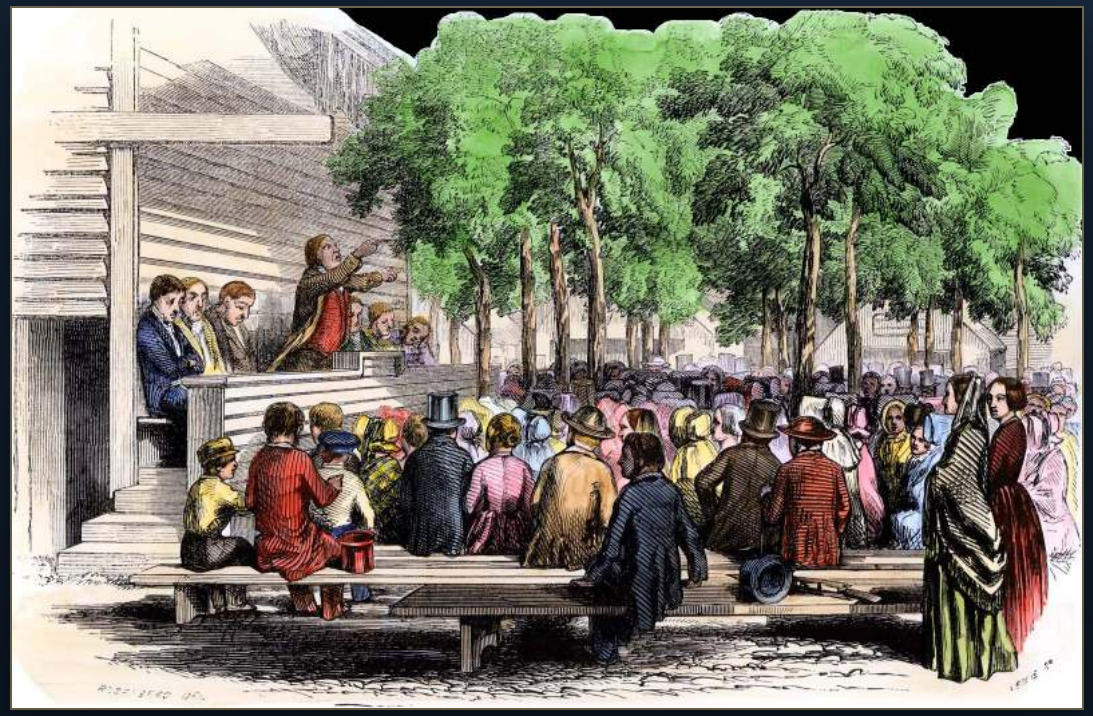

ALIGNED TO

CED Topics 4.9–4.11 · AMSCO Ch. 4.9–4.11

PERFECTING SOCIETY

An Age of Reform

The Second Great Awakening

- A wave of religious revivals swept the nation after 1800.
- Preachers like Charles Finney stressed personal salvation and free will.
- Its core belief: people—and society—could be perfected.

Faith Fuels Reform

REVIVAL

Great Awakening

Millions embrace personal faith and moral responsibility.

→

BELIEF

Perfectibility

If individuals can be saved, society can be improved.

→

ACTION

Reform Crusades

Americans launch movements to fix society's ills.

SECTION

Reforming Society

Utopian Communities

- Reformers built experimental utopian communities to model a perfect society.
- The Shakers practiced equality of the sexes and communal living.
- Most sought to reorganize life on cooperative principles.

The Temperance Movement

- Reformers blamed alcohol for poverty, crime, and broken families.
- The American Temperance Union (1826) grew to a million members.
- Women—often the victims of drunkenness—were central to the cause.

SECTION

The Abolitionist Movement

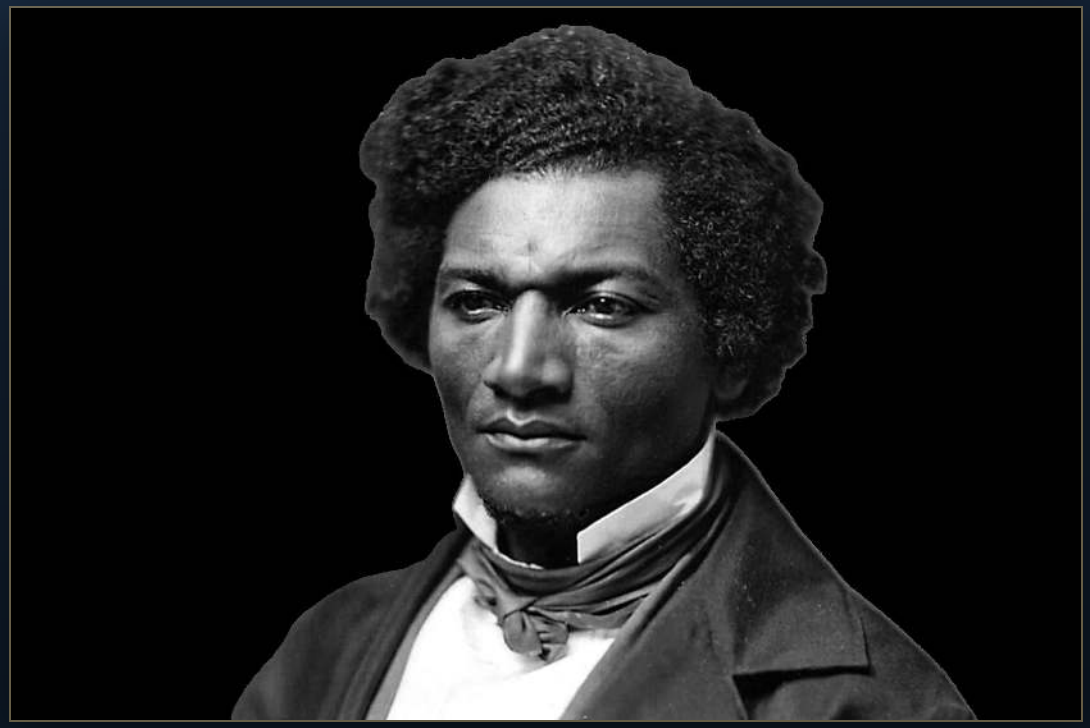

William Lloyd Garrison

- Garrison demanded the immediate end of slavery.
- In 1831 he founded his fiery newspaper, The Liberator.
- Abolitionists were a bold minority—often met with violent mobs.

Frederick Douglass

- Frederick Douglass escaped slavery to become its most powerful critic.
- His speeches and autobiography exposed slavery's brutality.
- Black abolitionists like David Walker also demanded freedom and equality.

SECTION

The Women's Rights Movement

From Abolition to Women's Rights

INVOLVEMENT

Women Reform

Women organize temperance and abolition campaigns.

→

EXCLUSION

Silenced

They are barred from leadership and denied a public voice.

→

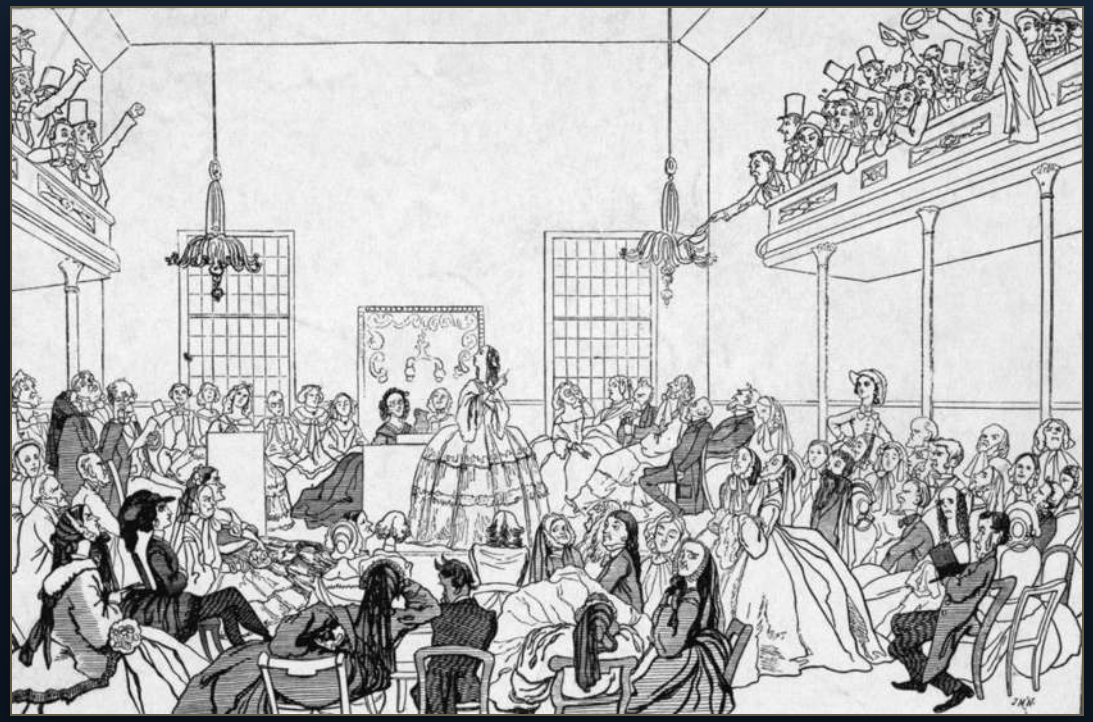

AWAKENING

Their Own Cause

They begin to demand rights for themselves.

A Historic Convention

Seneca Falls, 1848

- Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott organized the first women's rights convention.
- Its Declaration of Sentiments declared 'all men and women are created equal.'
- It launched the long struggle for women's suffrage.

SECTION

An American Culture

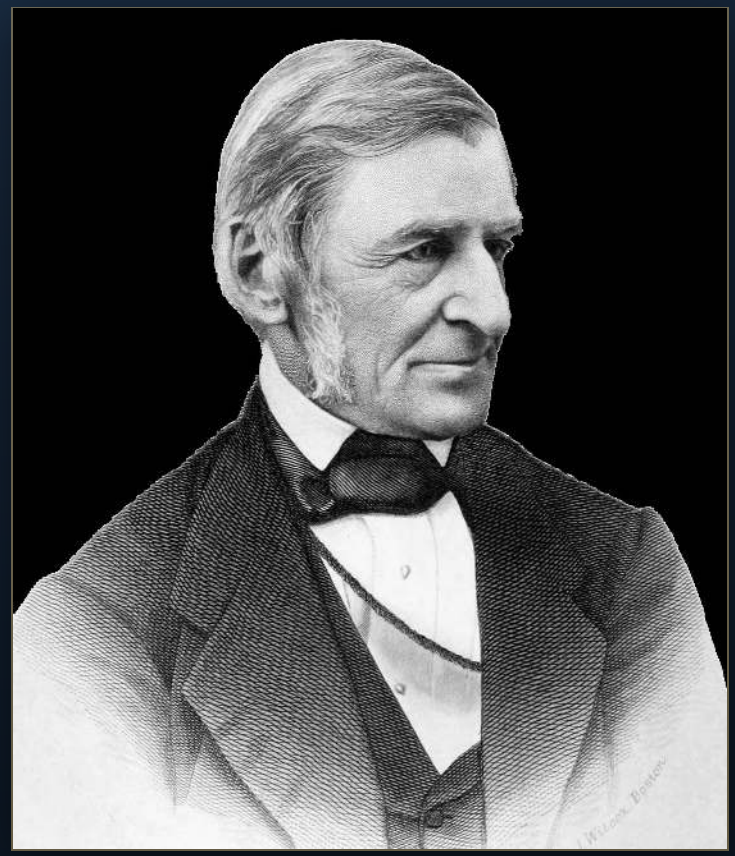

American Arts & Letters

- Romanticism celebrated nature, emotion, and the individual.
- The Hudson River School painted America's majestic wilderness.
- Writers like Cooper and Whitman forged a distinctly American voice.

Transcendentalism

- Ralph Waldo Emerson preached self-reliance and individual intuition.
- Henry David Thoreau found truth in nature and civil disobedience.
- They urged Americans to trust the self over convention.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

An Age of Reform

1. The Second Great Awakening's belief in human perfectibility sparked a wave of reform.
2. Abolitionists (Garrison, Douglass) and women's rights reformers (Stanton, Mott at Seneca Falls) challenged the nation's deepest injustices.
3. A distinct American culture—Romanticism, the Hudson River School, and Transcendentalism—celebrated nature and the individual.

DISCUSS & APPLY

An Age of Reform

AP HISTORICAL REASONING PRACTICE

CAUSATION

Explain how the Second Great Awakening fueled the era's reform movements.

COMPARISON

Compare the goals of the abolitionist and women's rights movements. How were they connected?

CONTINUITY & CHANGE

How did the ideal of human perfectibility reshape American ideas about society, faith, and the individual?

Up next — Lesson 18: Manifest Destiny (Texas, Oregon & westward expansion)