A BOLDER PUSH, 1935

The Second New Deal

Security for All

- The Social Security Act (1935) created old-age pensions and unemployment insurance.
- It also aided the disabled and dependent children.
- For the first time, the federal government guaranteed a safety net.

The Second New Deal

I

Social Security

Pensions and unemployment insurance—a permanent safety net.

II

The Wagner Act

Guaranteed workers the right to unionize and bargain collectively (NLRB).

III

Jobs & Wages

The WPA employed millions; the Fair Labor Standards Act set a minimum wage.

SECTION

Critics & Conflict

Critics of the New Deal

'Not enough!'

- Huey Long's 'Share Our Wealth' promised to tax the rich and give to all.
- Radio priest Father Coughlin attacked bankers and capitalism.
- They demanded a far more radical redistribution of wealth.

From the Right

'Too much!'

- The American Liberty League and business leaders cried 'socialism.'
- They warned the New Deal destroyed free enterprise and self-reliance.
- The Supreme Court struck down the NRA and AAA as unconstitutional.

The Court-Packing Fight

- Frustrated by the Court striking down New Deal laws, FDR proposed adding up to six justices.
- Critics called it a dangerous power grab—'court-packing.'
- The plan failed and cost FDR political support, even within his own party.
