A Mature Two-Party System

Democrats vs. Whigs

Jackson Forever!

The Hero of Two Wars and of Or'eans!

The Man of the People!

HE WHO COULD NOT BARTER NOR BARGAIN FOR THE PRESIDENCY!

Who, although "A Military Chieftain," valued the purity of Elections and of the Electors, MORE than the Office of PRESIDENT itself! Although the greatest in the gift of his countrymen, and the highest in point of dignity of any in the world,

BECAUSE

It should be derived from the

PEOPLE!

No Gag Laws! No Black Cockades! No Reign of Terror! No Standing Army or Navy Officers, when under the pay of Government, to browbeat, or

OLD HICKORY

AND THE ELECTORAL LAW.

- By the 1830s a full Second Party System operated nationally.
- Democrats (Jackson) championed the common man and limited government.
- Whigs (Clay) favored an active government and the American System.

Two Visions of Government

The Democrats

Jackson's party

- Champions of the common man.
- Feared concentrated federal and financial power.
- Opposed the national bank and high tariffs.

The Whigs

Clay's party

- Favored an active national government.
- Backed Clay's American System—bank, tariff, roads.
- Drew merchants, reformers, and the Northeast.

The Panic of 1837

Roots of the Panic

CAUSE

Bank War

Jackson destroys the national bank; credit runs wild through 'pet banks.'

→

TRIGGER

Specie Circular

Jackson demands gold/silver for federal land—drying up paper money.

→

COLLAPSE

Bubble Bursts

Land speculation collapses; banks fail across the country.

→

RESULT

Depression

A years-long depression—falling on new president Van Buren.

Van Buren's Burden

I

Inherited a Crisis

Martin Van Buren took office just as the Panic hit.

II

Limited Response

True to Democratic ideals, he kept government out of the economy.

III

Political Cost

Blamed for hard times, he became deeply unpopular.

SECTION

The Election of 1840

The Log Cabin Campaign

- The Whigs ran war hero William Henry Harrison as a man of the people.
- They flooded the country with log cabin and hard cider imagery.
- Slogans like 'Tippecanoe and Tyler Too' won a landslide.

Politics Becomes a Spectacle

I

Image Over Issues

Harrison, a wealthy man, was sold as a humble frontiersman.

II

Mass Participation

Rallies, songs, and slogans drew huge crowds.

III

The Modern Campaign

1840 set the template for image-driven presidential races.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

The Second Party System

1. The Second Party System pitted Jackson's Democrats against Clay's Whigs in vigorous national competition.
2. The Panic of 1837—rooted in the Bank War and the Specie Circular—sank Van Buren's presidency.
3. The 1840 Log Cabin campaign made politics a mass spectacle and swept the Whigs into power.
